Pools With a View

Swim to the edge of the world and back in the most incredible pools on earth.

BY HAYLEY DULIN

Hanging Gardens Ubud

Bali, Indonesia

Suspended high above the Indonesian jungle, the split-level infinity pool at The Hanging Gardens Ubud gives the unique sensation of swimming above the treetops. The upper level features an expansive pool deck with a full-service bar, while the lower level is almost hidden for ultimate relaxation and privacy. Book a poolside spa treatment or simply relax on one of the plush lounge chairs with a piña colada in hand.

Hôtel du Cap-Eden-Roc

Antibes, France

Overlooking the Mediterranean Sea, the storied pool at Hôtel du Cap offers idyllic views of the French Riviera and the mega-yachts that berth in its waters. It was primarily a winter destination until 1914, when the Eden Roc pavilion was built and the saltwater infinity pool carved out of the basalt rock cliffs. The famed hotel has since been the summer destination of choice for socialites, celebrities and tycoons.

Marina Bay Sands Hotel and Sands SkyPark

Singapore

For those not afraid of heights, take in some of the world's most incredible views at the pool on the 57th floor of the Marina Bay Sands Hotel. The largest and highest infinity pool in the world offers views of Singapore's financial district and Marina Bay that are second to none.

Grand Hotel Tremezzo

Tremezzo, Italy

Located on the western shore of Lake Como, the floating pool at Grand Hotel Tremezzo is an enchanting oasis resting on the lake's surface — literally. Take a dip in the crystal-clear pool set among the Grigne mountain range and enjoy the unparalleled views of Bellagio. For sunbathing and relaxing, take up residence on a lounge chair on the nearby man-made beach and watch the sailboats glide by.
